THE SENIOR SENATOR

What He Has to Say on Tennessee Politics.

An Interesting and Important Extract from His Masterly Speech Delivered at Fayetteville.

In the course of his speech delivered at Fayetteville Monday, Senator Isham G. Harris spoke as follows on State politics:

"In respect to the condition of our State affairs I find much cause for serious regret.

"Two years ago Gov. Buchanan was the President of the State Alliance. He had been a life long Democrat. He aspired to the Democratic nomination for the high and honorable office of Governor of the State. At that time there was not a demand, a recommendation or a suggestion of political policy announced by the Alliance which was inconsistent with the principles and policies which had been urged and advocated by the Democratic party from the beginning of the government.

"The Democratic party had no more reason to object to an Alliance man than it would have had to object to a Democrat who was a Baptist, Methodist, Presbyterian, a Free Mason or an Odd Fellow.

"He was nominated and placed upon a sound Democratic platform by the convention, and elected by Democratic votes.

"Subsequently the Alliance, or a portion of the Alliance element, held a national convention at Ocala, and, amongst other things, declared in favor of what are called the 'sub-treasury scheme, the land loan scheme and the government ownership of all railroads and telegraphs.

"These heresies, wholly inconsistent with the cardinal principles and traditions of the Democratic party, and absolutely beyond and outside the constitutional powers of Congress, and which, if entered upon by the Government, would have utterly destroyed its credit, involved it in immense and unnecessary expense, which could have been met only by increased and ruinous taxation upon the people, to say nothing of an additional half-million or more of Federal office-holders that this policy involved.

"Of course the Democratic party could never commit itself to heretical doctrines such as these, or take any chances of being committed to them by any one of its nominees.

"But, new and important as these questions were, the Governor was absolutely silent and non-committal on them and I do not know at this time whether he favors or opposes these measures.

"In this condition of affairs Judge Turney, than whom there is no able or truer Democrat or purer citizen, consented to accept the Democratic nomination for Governor if it was tendered to him.

"Before the convention met Gov. Buchanan withdrew his name from the consideration of the Democratic convention, Judge Turney was nominated and is the regularly chosen candidate of the party. But to the surprise of all true Democrats Gov. Buchanan declared himself an independent candidate.

"THE CANDIDATE OF NO PARTY.

"He is not a candidate of the Democratic party; he refused to allow its convention even to consider him. He is not the candidate of the Republican party. Nor is he the candidate of the Populist or Prohibition party. He is simply a citizen who turns his back upon all parties, defies all parties and undertakes to stab to the heart that party that has honored him by electing him Governor.

"He runs upon his own hook, and proposes, single handed and alone, to take charge of the affairs of the State and run them to suit himself, when he knows, or ought to know, that the only possible effect of his running must be to increase the chances of electing a Republican Governor.

"His mistake was in refusing to let the public know what his position was upon questions so important as these, and which affect the public interests so materially.

"STAND BY DEMOCRACY.

"In conclusion, I appeal to every man who believes that Republican policies are wrong and hurtful to the general prosperity and welfare of the country; to every man who is in sympathy with Democratic principles and policies; to every Democrat who has stood side by side with me through the long years of the past in fighting battles of equal rights, to rally to the flag, stand shoulder to shoulder, assert the equal rights of freemen, vote the straight Democratic ticket and the whole ticket from Grover Cleveland to the last name upon it, and when we have done that we can and will congratulate ourselves and the country upon the fact that we have again established honest Democratic rule and have rebuked the wrongs and outrages that the country has endured under Republican misrule and class legislation for the last thirty years."

A Cure for Cholera.

There is no use of any one suffering with cholera when Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy can be procured. It will give relief in a few minutes and cure in a short time. I have tried it and know.—W. H. Clinton, Helmetta, N. J. The epidemic at Helmetta was at first believed to be cholera, but subsequent investigation proved it to be a violent form of dysentery, almost as dangerous as cholera. This remedy is used there with great success. For sale by Owen & Moore, Druggists.

THE DEATH RECORD.

Eugene Morris, of Hopkinsville, Dies in New York.

Thos. Morris, a compositor in the LEAF-CHRONICLE office, received the sad news this morning that his brother, Eugene Morris, had died in New York. The news of his illness was received a few days ago, and the father of the young man left Hopkinsville, his home, immediately for New York. He was met, however, at Louisville by a telegram announcing the death of his son. The remains have been shipped from New York and should arrive here to-night. In this event the burial will take place at Newstead, Ky., to-morrow. Eugene Morris was a compositor and had been in New York only a few months. His relatives and acquaintances in this vicinity will be deeply pained at his death.

The following death notice is taken from the Hopkinsville New Era of yesterday:

"Mr. W. A. McCormick died at 10 o'clock this morning at his home on Virginia street, after a brief illness. He was a member of the local bar and had been a teacher in this country for many years. He leaves a wife and several children."

TROOPS TO THE RESCUE.

Trouble Fears at the Turtle Mountain Indian Reservation.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—The war department has been requested to send a detachment of troops to the Turtle Mountain Indian reservation in North Dakota to assist the government commission now there to carry out their instructions.

It is reported that the Canadian mixed bloods who were stricken from the agency rolls because they were fore-gone, now make open threats that they will prevent any course of action that does not include them in the deliberations. The troops will remain as long as is necessary to keep peace, allow free expressions of opinion, subdue improper influence and facilitate business.

To Regain the Cups.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—The yacht being built by Herreshoff Brothers for Royal Phelps' Carroll, and not for Archibald Rogers, as rumored. Carroll contemplates taking the cutter to England, and will endeavor to regain for the New York yacht club the Cape May and Brenton's reef cups, won by the Genesta in 1885. He will also enter local regattas and hopes to make a good showing.

GLORIOUS FLORIDA.

The People's Party Buried Clean Out of Sight.

Mitchell, the Democratic Candidate For Governor, Will Have a Majority of Fully 20,000.

Glorious news comes from Florida and it is told as follows by a press dispatch:

"JACKSONVILLE, Oct. 5.—The vote of the State is hardly as heavy as was expected. This is accounted for by the fact that the poll-tax requirements kept down the aggregate of qualifications in all parties. Up to 9 o'clock last night full returns had not been received from any one of the forty-five counties, but precinct votes furnished a good basis for calculation. Mitchell (Dem.) has carried the State by at least 2,000 majority. Baskin (People's party) cannot by any possibility show up with more than 8,000 votes, which is 18,000 less than the Republican vote for four years ago. White Republicans, where they voted at all, generally supported the People's party ticket, but the negroes, strange to say, divided their votes between Mitchell and Baskin. Reports from about twenty-five of the counties declare that more negroes voted the Democratic ticket than voted the People's party ticket, and this, too, without intimidation of any kind.

"The result certainly dispels all doubts, if any ever existed, as to the State being Democratic at the November election. The same considerations in the minds of the people which carried the State for Mitchell to-day will also carry Cleveland through on November 8."

Holleman-Sherron.

Jas. Holleman, of this city, left for Murfreesboro last evening, where this morning he was united in marriage to Miss Sherron, of that city. The couple will arrive in the city to-night and will repair to the Hollman residence on Main street, where they will reside in the future. Mr. Holleman has many friends in Clarksville who will congratulate himself and bride on their return.

'Squire Slaughter's Letter.

'Squire Slaughter is out to day in a letter accepting the Third party nomination for State Senator. A striking feature of the letter is its great length, approaching to within the neighborhood of Harrison's letter accepting the nomination for President on the Republican ticket.

Fire at Erin.

John F. Edwards lost a fine frame dwelling and a portion of its contents this morning by fire. The house was nicely furnished and the loss will be considerable, approximately, however, at $2,000. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Quick Returns.

'Squire Z. Smith, reporter for the Knights of Honor, received yesterday a check for $2,000 for the benefit of Mrs. John J. West, as insurance on her husband's life.

The Old Maids Win.

The game of ball at the park last evening was an easy victory for the Old Maids in a score of 16 to 1. The attendance was good, but the game was devoid of special interest.

The Buchanan Committee.

The Buchanan Executive Committee held a meeting this morning in a room over the Union Warehouse office. Nothing is known of the proceedings.

Cleaning the Gutters.

Capt. Welch has a force at work to-day cleaning the Franklin street gutters. This is a work that should be kept going all the time.

SOME SENSIBLE TALK.

W. R. Harrington Speaks to Clarksville Colored People.

He Thinks the Members of His Race Should Stick to the White People of the South.

A speech was made at the courthouse last night that deserves more than a passing mention. It was delivered by W. R. Harrington, a colored man from the Central Tennessee College, to a very large crowd of members of his race. His subject was the advancement of the negro race and their position in the coming campaign. The substance of the speech was about as follows:

"The South is the home of the negro. The white people can not get rid of the negro, neither can the negro get rid of the white man. This being the case their interest is a common one. What benefits one race will benefit the other as well. The Northern Republican has all along been in the habit of riding the negro into office, but like Billy Mahone going to heaven, he always hitches his horse on the outside. The negro must vote as an independent citizen who has a part in moulding the government. A negro should not vote for a man because he is simply a Republican, but pick out the best man, regardless of party and vote for him. If Judge Turney is the best man in the race for Governor every negro in the State should vote for him. 'I don't want,' said the speaker, 'social relations with the white people. I don't want to go to their houses and sleep in their beds. Our beds are good enough for me. I don't want to carry a white girl out driving. One of my own color and race suits me better. The South, I repeat, is our home and our interests are commensurate with those of the white people. It is to our interest to stick to the white people of the South. They are always our friends if we behave ourselves and stay in our places.'"

This is a mere outline of the speech and is given to show that there are many colored people in Clarksville who endorse every word of it, because they were there and applauded the speaker. Such speeches, free from vituperation, are commendable and will do much to heal the breach between the two races that have been made by designing race agitators of the North.

LIBRARY ASSOCIATION.

Montgomery County School Teachers Meet at the Court House.

The Library Association met in the Library Room Saturday, October 1, promptly at 10:30 a. m., and immediately proceeded to business. About thirty teachers were present. The following were among the number: Messrs. Harned, Curd, Bayer, Bradbury, Rollow, Lyle, Forbman, Powers, Curdette, Webster; Misses Kate Rogers, Minnie Shackelford, Julia Luckert, Mary Curd, Hattie Parks, Anna Belle Major, Mary Neblett, Mrs. Gilbert, Lizette Elliott, A. B. Cardwell, and others whose names were not learned.

Supt. Harned being engaged at this hour, J. G. Rollow acted as temporary chairman. Mr. F. L. Burdette led in prayer. The first thing on the program was Busy Work, by Miss Kate Rogers. She showed how important and yet how difficult it was to keep small children busily and profitably employed.

Mr. Burdette next gave us some good hints on busy work through all the grades.

Our next work was a production on School Discipline, by Miss Minnie Shackelford. This production was well got up and showed deep thought. It was stated, and 'tis true, that the fault and disorder in school rooms is largely the fault of the teacher.

After our regular work was over, Mr. A. C. Webster, representing Chas. L. Webster & Co. was introduced, and after some few remarks the Association bought of him the Library of American Literature, in eleven volumes, 6,900 pages, embracing 8,000 selections from 1,207 American authors. This is an excellent work, and will aid the library materially.

Our next meeting will be held in the Library Room, Saturday, Nov. 5th, beginning at 10:30 a. m.

J. H. BAYER, Sec'y.

You will be cured without inflation if you take "C. C. C. Certain Chill Cure," for chills and fever. Pleasant to take. Guaranteed. Sold by Owen & Moore.
